

Jesus' Final Days

(Jewish days end at sundown, like in Genesis)

Day 3 (Tuesday):

Judas decides when to betray Jesus.

Day 4 (Wednesday, starting after sundown):

Passover, and Last Supper

Judas betrays Jesus and He's taken

Illegal mid-night trials

Sun comes up, official trial, crucifixion

Earth quaked, tombs of the prophets open up for First Fruits (prophets were buried there)

Joseph wraps Jesus in clean linen and improperly placed Him in the tomb

The women see Jesus improperly buried and leave

Joseph returns with Nicodemus to use aloe and myrrh

Preparations for Feast of Unleavened Bread, will begin at sundown

Day 5 (Thursday):

Feast of Unleavened Bread starts at supper, lasts one week

Sabbath, because of the Unleavened Bread feast, not the weekly sabbath

High priest asks Pilate to place a guard at the tomb

Day 6 (Friday):

Women prepare spices, because they don't know Joseph and Nicodemus return

Women prepare for weekly sabbath that starts at sundown

Day 7 (Saturday):

Soldiers witness the angel that rolled the stone, hit the ground, freak out, head to the city

12:00pm-3:00pm Jesus resurrects on the sabbath, 3 days and 3 nights exactly

Saints (prophets) resurrect, enter the Holy City

Women resting for the weekly sabbath

Day 1 (Sunday):

Chief priests and elders hold counsel, decide to pay Roman guards

Night (Saturday night for modern thinking), the women show up with spices, original spices girls

Mary sees the empty tomb

Mary sees Jesus

Mary goes to tell Peter and John, they all return to the tomb, then the disciples leave

Jesus ascends to Heaven to present First Fruits (the resurrected prophets walking around)

Later, Jesus appears to two disciples walking to Emmaus

Day 2 (Monday):

Jesus appears to the disciples in Jerusalem

(and so on...)
